The Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about April 28, 2014 and August 20, 2014 you or your organization committed the following violation of Federal Regulations:

9 CFR, SECTION

Failure to

2.40(a)(1)

- Each dealer or exhibitor shall have an attending veterinarian who shall provide adequate veterinary care to its animals in compliance with this section. Each dealer and exhibitor shall employ an attending veterinarian under formal arrangements. In the case of a part-time attending veterinarian or consultant arrangements, the formal arrangements shall include a written program of veterinary care and regularly scheduled visits to the premises of the dealer or exhibitor.

(The program of veterinary care was incomplete.)

2.40(b)(3)

- Each dealer or exhibitor shall establish and maintain programs of adequate veterinary care that include: Daily observation of all animals to assess their health and well-being.

(A brown rabbit was reluctant to move and looked lethargic. When the rabbit moved it stumbled to the right. The right ear drooped and had a reddish brown flaky debris in the lower half of the ear.

A brown rabbit housed with a white rabbit had a quarter-sized gash in the left hind quarters. The rabbit seemed lethargic and weak.)

2.75(b)(1)

- Each dealer or exhibitor shall establish and maintain programs of adequate veterinary care that include: The availability of appropriate facilities, personnel, equipment, and services to comply with the provisions of this subchapter.

(There were no records documenting the acquisition of any of the covered species.)

Titles 7 & 9 Code of Federal Regulations were promulgated to help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases and assure the humane treatment of animals. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impact detrimental to the public interest, you are warned of this violation. Any further violation of these regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty or criminal prosecution. If you have any questions concerning this warning or violation, please contact the listed APHIS Official.
